VOL. IV. NO. 194.

CHICAGO, WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 17, 1898.

HAWTHORNE RESULTS.

Little could be expected of racing at Hawthorne yesterday, because the track was deep in mud. The best the horses could do was to remind one of the speed of an auxiliary post-office clerk and "form" was knocked to the winds.

The betting race of the day was the handicap, for which Can't Dance went to the post at 7 to 1, got to the front after shaking off Sardonic in the first three-eighths, and won hugging the inside fence, with J. Reiff whipping like mad, although apparently without occasion, for Eddie Jones, running on the extreme outside of the track, was obviously beaten midway the straight. The last named horse was always the outender. Sardonic only ran three-quarters before collapsing entirely and Morte Fosse, until then fourth, finished a bad third. Secretary Kuhl has long been noted as a handicapper likely to make the longest shot the winner, as here was a case in point. The rain, however, was on his side. The day overhead could not be beaten, the air was warm and balmy and the crowd much larger than on Monday. The talk of the race track war seems to have died the death of the Michigan carpet bug, which, when investigated, turns to powder, although when rampant the insect works irreparable injury.

Nora Ives and Barabbas led to the home stretch, the others in a bunch three open lengths behind. Pay the Fiddler was left at the post. At the last eighth it looked as if any one of nine might win, as the heavy going stopped the best and did not impede the worst. Finally Mr. Johnson won, Cheval d'Or second, Old Fox third. Flirtation was close up.

The public knew what to expect as a notice was posted to the effect that Meddler and Governor Sheehan would not be allowed to delay the starts. Nevertheless Meddler and Refugee, another bad actor, were made equal favorites. Redskin, formerly a horse of high class, but recently sold for $125, reveled in the going which did not "set afire" his shaky legs, and, getting off in the front rank, although outrun for a half by Refugee, came to the front on the inside rails at the turn for home and won easily with his jockey L. Reiff looking back. Treopia, off fifth, beat Sir Hobart for the place. The latter was never worse than fourth or better than third. Eleanor Holmes, off third, ran to second position, then was fourth into the straight and so finished. Refugee died away at the last eighth and finished in the ruck, the leader of which was Nat P., several lengths behind Sir Hobart. Refugee it was and not Meddler who refused for a time to join his horses.

Molo created a stir both in the betting ring and later on. He opening at 3 to 1 was knocked to 11 to 5, then advanced to 3 to 1 and at the post jumped to 5 to 1. At the barrier he refused to break and acted like a horse full of dope. Once he grabbed the netting in his teeth, chewed it viciously and then dodged under it. When straightened away, however, he ran true, and always second to Heigh Ho, ran past his only competitor at the last sixteenth, winning handily. Paul Kauvar was a bad third. For five-eighths he was headed by Vice Regal. The others were beaten off. Amanda finished at the last eighth.

The Iowa plunger was down good and hard on Doremus, sending that horse from 7 to 2 down to 11 to 5, but Brown Dick's Silver Tone won all the way, and taking the extreme outside of the track, lost enough ground at the last turn to give Doremus a fighting chance. Nora C., bar a stumble at the last fifty yards, might have been closer up. Bloss was the only horse not beaten off.

For a horse that won so easily Monday the price against Elidad Tuesday was extraordinarily long. The bookmakers hoisted 2 to 1, kept it there, and after the race paid all the form players. Governor Sheehan, first to take command, was headed by Branch at the last turn but the latter ran out and finished fourth. Elidad, third away from the post, was handled nicely by Jenkins, who sat still and let the others die in front. Elidad running evenly throughout wearing down Governor Sheehan at the last sixteenth and winning easily. Branch was beaten close in by Prince Blazes. No others were in sight at the finish. Jenkins, the boy who has won with Elidad two days in succession, is the exercising lad who works Satsuma.

"Nick" Cramer, the well-known politician and tobacconist, had $5 each way on Elidad Monday at 70 and 10, thus cleaning up $100. He said: "I played the horse because he was sired by Hayden Edwards, the sire of Bannockburn, who had just romped home in the mud."

Yesterday it was erroneously stated that "Lon" Haskell, of Grand Rapids, was the owner of Elidad. The horse is the property of H. L. Haskell, the owner of Mistral II.

Jockeys Warren, "Tip" Leigh and Snell have been indefinitely suspended at St. Louis, where the judges recommend the revocation of the license of C. Clay.

It was stated that Galen Brown thought so little of the chance of Can't Dance that he sold his running qualities for the handicap.

The entry of Meddler will be refused until the horse is properly schooled to break with the other horses from the starting gate.

Moncreith, who was cut by a kick received at the post from Madrilene on August 11, will be ready to race in a week.

There were sixteen regular and two field bookmakers. J. J. Donovan stills runs the combination book.

Paul Griggs, entered in a selling race for $300, was scratched.

Imp has not yet entirely recovered from her injuries.

C. S. Bush was at the track.

IN STORE AT HARLEM.

Secretary Nathanson has issued the program book for next week's racing at Harlem. Besides the usual array of liberal purses it provides three stake events for decision in the course of the week. The first, the Chicago Stakes, for three-year-olds and upwards, will be run off next Monday. It is a mile dash with $1,000 added, penalties and allowances, and among the speedy ones entered are Imp, Hugh Penny, Paul Griggs, St. Alfonses D., Candelaria, Eddie Jones, Dr. Sheppard, Eva Rice, Morte Fosse, Donna Rita, Algol, Lieber Karl, Goodrich and Ramiro II. With good weather and a fast track it should bring about a brilliant contest.

The second stake of the week will be the La Grange, six furlongs, for 2-year-olds, with $1,000 added, which will be the feature of Wednesday's racing. Saturday, the Commercial Stakes, for 3-year-olds and upward, 1-8 miles, $1,000 added, selling conditions, will fitly mark the closing day of what will no doubt prove a week of extremely interesting racing.

J. W. Schorr has sent word that the division of his stable now at St. Louis will be here in time for the opening day and George J. Long's stable will arrive from Louisville Monday.

Notice is given that all complimentary badges now outstanding, except those issued to owners, trainers and jockeys, are no longer in force and will be taken up. The Harlem officials have wisely concluded to do away with the Winner—Ch. c, by King Alfonso—Girofla.

Post 5 minutes. Start fair. It was a staggering finish. Not one of the first four was going faster than a walk. Mr. Johnson proved the best stayer in the sticky going. Shields held him well together at the finish. Cheval d'Or was off none too well and had the worst luck of the lot. He was in close to the rail where the going was deepest. He is a game colt and was under a drive the last furlong. Old Fox, perhaps, ran the best race. He was off poorly, none too well handled and closed strong on his own courage. He would have been second in another stride. Nora Ives and Barabab had the speed of the field. They opened up a big gap early, but tired to nothing in the stretch. Frank Ireland was off flying and had no excuses.

Scratched—Jockey Joe, 110; Becky Ban, 107; Boardman, 110.

Winner—Ch. h, 8, by Rummymede or Pontiac—Girofla.

Post 4 minutes. Start good for all but Meddler. Won easily; second and third were under a drive. Redskin ran a good race. He was lucky in getting away and outfooted the others all the way. He was high in flesh and did not look fit to race and pulled up very lame. Treopia, considering the bad luck he had, did exceedingly well. His forte is mud and in it he almost always runs a good race. Sir Hobart is a mudraker. Eleanor Holmes weakened badly in the stretch. She will do better on a fast track. Refugee, off flying, showed some speed. He was lame going to the post and naturally stopped early.

Scratched—Lucy Belle, 117; Apple Jack, 115; Paul Griggs, 122; Neutral, 119.

Winner—B. g, 5, by Longfellow—Square Dance.

Post 30 seconds. Start straggling. Won under the whip. The next two were driving and out to the last ounce. The start killed whatever chance Eddie Jones had. He was practically left at the post, being sideways and standing perfectly still when the barrier went up. It is doubtful though whether he could have beaten Cant Dance with a flying start. The latter had a lot the best of the weights and in the sticky going it told on the others. His last race was good and considering the difference in weights his price was extremely liberal. Eddie Jones was tiring fast at the finish and Morte Fonse would have beaten him for the place in a few more strides. The latter was badly outrun the first part of it and seemed anchored in the sticky going.

Scratched—Chugnut, 96.

Overweights—Eddie Jones, 14 pounds.

Winner—Ch. c, 3, by Pardee—Outstep.

Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won handily and staggeringly; second driving; third eased at the end. Molo liked the going, was lucky in getting away and McKickle handled him nicely. At the weights his price was far out of line. Heigh Ho is a speedy filly, has a liking for the mud but seems to dislike a route. She looked a sure winner on the far turn, but weakened at the end. The race was always between the first two. They were both very tired and at the head of the stretch there was some bumping between the pair. There was not enough, however, to cause any difference in the result. Paul Kauvar was always outrun. Vice Regal was prominent the first half but could not last in the going.

Scratched—Winslow, 106.

Winner—B. c, by Falsetto—Silver Thread.

Post 1 minute. Start fair. Won easily; second and third were doing their best. As the race was run Silver Tone was the best. He was away flying and seemed right at home in the going. Turner took him to the extreme outside in the stretch and found a piece of good going. Doremus is a slow beginner. He got a good send-off, but was outrun to the stretch. When Reiff saw there was no possible chance of catching Silver Tone he did not punish the colt. Nora C. seemed to quit on the far turn, but came again. The filly stumbled and almost fell. Bloss ran a fair race. After going about a furlong Anna Bright seemed to become anchored in the mud. The field was badly strung out at the finish.

Scratched—Hermite, 107; Barney Saal, 110.

Winner—B. c, 3, by Hayden Edwards—Fanny Lyon.

Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won handily. It was a terrific drive for the place. Elidad is a wonder in the mud. He was under a stout pull all the way and just toyed with his field. Governor Sheehan ran a good race. The track suited his bad legs, and, although a bad actor, he got away nicely. With a better send-off Prince Blazes would have been troublesome. He was much used the first part of it and weakened at the end. It was close for the place. Branch was strongly touted and played some. He showed speed but could not last. Del Paso II. ran a bad race. So did Caius. Is was a cheap lot and little or no form to it.

Scratched—Fremont, 122; Jim Brown, 112; Agnes C., 110; Black Fonso, 112.
